

Central Online

January 8, 2008

The Weekly TIE Update

*We're Headin' To
The Fountain In 2008*

So... "Let The Flow Go!"

TELL ME!
the story of Jesus

*Lottie Moon Christmas Offering
Missions Committee Goal
For 2007 is $120,000*

In the Hospital
Decatur General:
Cissy Tortorano

Steps to Peace with God Calendars

These calendars are a great witnessing tool and are available outside the church sanctuary.

Thank You

A thank you has been received from Sarah Garner

YOUTH

Flood is back this week. The first flood of the new year starts at 6:00 on the 4th floor.

SnowFix (HS/College Ski Trip), January 18-21. The cost is $250. The balance is now past due. Sign up and pay your balance today!!!

DNow registration has begun! The cost is only $45. Check us out at cbsmonline.org. The deposit ($20) was due December 16. Sign up today!!

Music & Worship

I've got a New Year's resolution for you: Come join the choir! There are lots of great music events coming up, and we would love to have you join us and strategically place your serve. We meet together every Wednesday night at 7:00 pm in the Choir Room... stop by and give it a try this week!

Calling all Sing 'N Strings Ukulele Choir members! I would love to get this ministry started back up in 2008. Please email me at cfarris@cbdecatour.org or call at 353-5912 if you are interested. I am planning to have an information meeting sometime this month, with plans to start meeting regularly in February. Come join us for some great fun and fellowship!

CBC Christmas Ornaments

We still have a few CBC ceramic Christmas ornaments for sale in the library and church office. The cost is $15 per ornament. $7.50 from the sale of the ornaments will go to our Lottie Moon Christmas Offering.

Preschool & Children

All preschoolers are invited to meet us at the Priceville McDonalds this Friday between 10:30 a.m. and 12:30 pm. The kids can play on the huge indoor playground, and the moms can visit! Please come and bring a friend.

Our next Moms on Monday meeting is next Monday, January 14, from 10:00-11:30 am in the church parlor. Please let Tracy know if you plan to come, especially if you need childcare!